I'm tired of all the lies
I wish I could run away
Your miracles last forever
But forever died yesterday
Now there's nowhere left to go
Still you tell me so
I know, I know
Everywhere I go
I know, I know
Still you tell me so
I know, I know
Everywhere I go
I know, I know
Am I still in your heart?
It's getting kinda hard to tell
In this nightmare you call heaven
In this heaven that I call hell
Still you tell me so
I know, I know
Everywhere I go
I know, I know
Still you tell me so
I know, I know
Everywhere I go
I know, I know
