2000 election stole from Al Gore
2001 Pres. Bush pushed troops in war
2008 the death rates unlike before
Throw stones alic syndrome we're better off alone
No stickers support our troops bring 'em on shore Grown sore to poor leaders who care nothing for Felt a tapping my response question asking
Will we see our baby core quoth the raven never more
Dollar drop rose cheney's stock
Haliburton put money in cheney's pock
They make billions, we lose millions
Women children pose as civilians
Recitin psalms strapped with bombs note to moms death is calm
It's genocide not penalized
Tears won't survive in the devils eyes

[Chorus:]

It's time to show and prove make a move it's on you
What you gon do win or lose who you gon choose
They bleed we grieve they die we cry
The life of our country it's bigger than you and I

Every dog has it's day it's time for a change [Repeat
4x]

(It's Time For A Change) [Repeat 4X]

Presidential race turned to conviction of race
These candidates still deface in debates
They claim a woman can't be a great leader
I guess they'll never be great mothers either
No growth young folk don't vote
Old folk tend to care about what they don't Promote hope sore throats denote better the way we live
McCain campaigns stay in Iraq 100 years
As long as we don't lose any Americans
Cataracts cloud the fact that's what the problem is How can you survive environs that kill before you die
We CBS now playing the price is right

[Chorus:]

It's time to show and prove make a move it's on you
What you gon do win or lose who you gon choose
They bleed we grieve they die we cry
The life of our country it's bigger than you and I

Every dog has it's day it's time for a change [Repeat
4x]
(It's Time For A Change) [Repeat 4X]
