I did not know what it was to love only one
Did you misread, my intentions is what was wrong
But now I'm back, I won't let you get away
Our love was never bad, please don't take your faith

It's like the host that you take in vain
I know how you felt 'cause now I feel the same
No, it's not too late
I know, I know, I know we can make it

Love, love, it's not too late
It's not too late to start again for your
Love, love, it's not too late
It's not too late to start again

When I was gone did you feel a change in your heart
Love is for two, not just one, did it tear you apart
Just so you know when you walked away I changed my heart
I'm begging you to stay

Hear me now, those days are gone
My love is new, I'll never do you wrong
No, it's not too late
I know, I know, I know we can make it

Love, love, it's not too late
It's not too late to start again for your
Love, love, it's not too late
It's not too late to start again

Can we start again
I wanted you to stay
I know it's not too late
How can I make you stay

It's not, it's not too late
I wanted you to stay
I know it's not too late
How can I make you stay
It's not, it's not too late

Listen to what I say
Baby it's worth one more try

Love, love, it's not too late
It's not too late to start again for your
Love, love, it's not too late
It's not too late to start again

Love, love, it's not too late
It's not too late to start again for your
Love, love, it's not too late
It's not too late to start again
