This is probably the last thing you want to hear
But I can't hold it inside my heart
I'm dying when I think about last year
And all of the time we spent apart
I'll make this short because I know you gotta run
But hear me out before you go
I made so many mistake make then
But tonight, tonight I'm begging you
And I'm staying up way too late
And doing everything I can
But I know it's already too late
But I've got you on my mind again
I'm driving downtown on the weekends
Hoping that maybe
I'll run into you
But even if I did
I don't know what I'd say or what I'd do
But I know
That just one look is all I need from you
They say you gotta fall before you stand up
They say you gotta sink before you swim
I know you think you've had enough
But baby this time so lets try it again
I hate what's pulling us apart
I hate myself for being by your side'
I know I was wrong and I know that I lied
But you got every single little piece of my heart
Tonight I'm staying up way too late
And doing everything that I can
But I know it's already too late
And I've got you on my mind again
Driving downtown on the weekends
Hoping that maybe
I run into you
But even if I did
I don't know what I'd say or what I'd do
I know
That just one look is all I need from you
