And I think I called you a minute ago
I'm falling apart and it's starting to show
Why can't I let go
Are you letting go
Well I am sick and tired of hearing the ring of your cell phone
As were talking
And I'm trying to come clean
But he won't let us be

So tell him I want to see him drown
Spill his guts all across this town
Then maybe I'll calm down
Maybe I'll calm down
Teah tell him I want to see him drown
Spill his guts all across this town
Then maybe I'll calm down
Maybe I'll calm down mhmm

Trying to put back together
The pieces I've thrown to the wind
But it's not working tonight
When can we start over again

Trying to put back together
The pieces I've thrown to the wind
But it's not working tonight
When can we start over again

So tell him I want to see him drown
Spill his guts all across this town
Then maybe I'll calm down
Maybe I'll calm down
Teah tell him I want to see him drown
Spill his guts all across this town
Then maybe I'll calm down
Maybe I'll calm down mhmm
