Just past my window, she dances real slow, under the seam is a dream
There's something obscene, in a dream
You make my lungs sweat, my liquid skin set, under the seam is a dream
There's something obscene, in a dream
Just like my rainbow, she likes it real slow, under the
seam is a dream
There's something obscene, in a dream
You wake up, you go down, there's something in between, day by day My pores are open, to every motion, under the seam is a dream is a dream
There's something obscene in a dream
Her naked entrance to naked violence under the seam is a dream
There's something obscene, in a dream
I've always wanted to be in you
