The ground under my feet,
Never stays stud still.
But listen to my heartbeat
It's never gonna change.
Now that dark becomes bright,
Right becomes wrong, calm becomes storm
Through the thunder or rain
Breaking winds I can still hear.

You said you'd never seen a heartbeat
You don't have to hesitate
And I'll keep coming
You just have to say heart rate
Ah aaah aaah ah ah
Ah aaah aaah ah ah

Angels become devils,
Strangers become lovers.
And now it's crazy outside
Nowhere to hide, skies are falling.
Through the thunder or rain
Breaking winds I can still hear.

You said you'd never seen a heartbeat
You don't have to hesitate
And I'll keep coming
You just have to say heart rate
Ah aaah aaah ah ah
Ah aaah aaah ah ah

Dark becomes bright,
Right becomes wrong,
Calm becomes storm
I can still hear.

You said you'd never seen a heartbeat
You don't have to hesitate
And I'll keep coming
You just have to say heart rate
Ah aaah aaah ah ah
Ah aaah aaah ah ah
