First you take a ride on the Broadway
Then you travel on like the sign says
Heartache goes ahead, but you go on instead
To the avenue of love
Everybody smiles when they drive on
Not to many miles till the smile's gone
Ain't no lover's lane, got to live with pain
On the avenue of love

If you go too fast, too fast, too fast
It's never gonna last, to last, to last
And if you lose your way, your way, your way
There ain't no triple lanes

You see broken hearts by the roadside
All abandoned dreams that they once tried
Maybe lost for few, some will make it through
On the avenue of love.
(Instrumental)

And if you go too fast, too fast, too fast
It's never gonna last, to last, to last
And if you lose your way, your way, your way
There ain't no triple lanes

You see broken hearts by the roadside
All the abandoned dreams that they once tried
Maybe lost for few, some will make it through
On the avenue of love

Some will make it true
On the avenue of love
Some will make it true
On the avenue of love
