CHAIN ME (David Gates)

CHAIN ME (David Gates)

I lay awake at night and thinkin' how I'm gonna get into you
I pray with all my mind and gonna do it right
.....to you
I think I'm 'bout saying and I don't know I can set astray
And if you wanna keep me away I think you're gonna
have to chain me
How come you are the only one Who makes me feel this way I do about you I've always been lazy now I'm crazy when I am without
you
You lit the flame and I'm not about to take away
And if you wanna keep me away I think you're gonna
have to chain me
You started the fire and taught me desire For chains cannot bind the feelings are burnin' my mind

Now here I am beside you, I can't hide the way my body's shaking
The way my heart is bound Man, it's sounding like it's gotta be breaking I tried to stop in vain, but it's like I tried to stop a big freight train
And if you wanna keep me away I think you're gonna
have to chain me
And if you wanna keep me away I think you're gonna
have to chain me
