Looking at your picture laying on my bed Wishing I was pulling close the real you instead I don't know what I said or did But girl I'm missing you And I like to hear my music But there's nothing I can listen to Cos I can't play the song I used to play because of you

The lonesome feeling starts before the intro halfway thru Everyone reminds me of the things we used to do together
And I can't go to places that I used to take you to Cos everywhere the faces there they all look just like you
Until your heart comes back where it belongs
I can't play the songs

Everywhere I'm drivin' I go a different way
I can't turn on my radio, afraid what they might play My friends all drive me crazy cause you're all they ask about
And why I live in silence but they just don't understand

Without you, I can't play the song I used to play because of you
The lonesome feeling starts before the intro halfway
thru
No one can replace you cause once I tried And even when I try to go with someone new You are so deep in my head
I looked into her eyes but then I said your name instead
Until your heart comes back where it belongs
I can't play the songs

There's nothing left that I can do cause I so lost in love with you
No where to turn, no place to run
You know you are my only one

I can't play the song you used to sing along with me Cause' everyone is always bringin' back the memory

Until your heart is back where it belongs I can't play the songs (won't you please come back to me)
