[Oh whoo]
Hey you, say you
Wanna start over again
Like I ever wanted it
To be any different
I've been watching all your colours fade
To blue

Said you'd come back
Like I wanted you, wanted you
Stop pretending everything's alright

Oh, baby blue, Oh baby blue
C'mere I'm gonna smear another colour over you
Get outta bed you little sleepy head
Your black and white needs a little bit of red,
Your black and white needs a little bit of red
[Ohh whooo]

Couldn't handle
Pressure life had put'chu through Thought you mighta bit a litte more than you could chew
No, I don't believe it when you say,
I will make it up to you.
Said you'd come back,
Didn't want you too, want you too.
Still pretending everything's alright

Oh, baby blue, Oh baby blue
C'mere I'm gonna smear another colour over you
Get outta bed you little sleepy head
Your black and white needs a little bit of red,
Your black and white needs a little bit of red
Baby blue, Ohh ohh, Baby blue, Ohh ohh ohh

Oh, baby blue, Oh baby blue
C'mere I'm gonna smear another colour over you
Get outta bed you little sleepy head
Your black and white needs a little bit of red,
Oh, baby blue, Oh baby blue
C'mere I'm gonna smear another colour over you

Get outta bed you little sleepy head
Your black and white needs a little bit of red,
Your black and white needs a little bit of red
[Oh whoo]
