Don't go underground without me,
Please take me to your world...
In the night I found you,
Now I walk without you

Thought I would be safer here,
But all I see is where you were...
Now the night surrounds you,
And I walk without you...

Where are you now?

I've waited so long...
With every word I called your name,
Though I know you're gone...

Where are you now?
I've waited so long...
With every word I called your name,
Though I know you're gone...

Take me with you..
