Struggling to keep it alive
But we're lost in the dark
I still believe these words can light the way
We'll never give up the struggle
Even when it looks like there's no hope
What so many have cast aside
We still feel in our hearts
That feeling will drive us onward
For the new kids coming up
We're holding on
Who can question what we feel
Who can try to keep us down
When the will to bring it back is burning strong
Can you remember how it felt
To be a part of something real
You'll know this is the reason we go on
Nothing will break the spirit
We've got to pass it on
No matter what we face we'll keep this alive
For the kids
Who can question what we feel
Who can try to keep us down
We will be relentless holding on
For the kids
