Verse 1

When you feel my presence beside you
It would be wise to look deep inside of you I might just decide to confide in you but be aware cos I might be lying to you.

Verse 2

In seriousness I'll enlighten you If I drown I will deide you you can't escape cause I'll know where to find you and if you run I'll be right behind you

Chorus

and I'm feelin like I'm going round in circles, circles and I'm cringing at just knowing the people, people I am falling, I am drowning I am fadin' like the sunlight and I'm craving all the answers to the questions that I'm asked
