Heads face the ground nervous hand that slay dead snakes float until setting of a day a butterfly in burning hell oh will she live and will she tell the king is dead long live the unseen clowns and fools raped the grieving queen inhale exhale the beast's breath a killer died dreaming of death a landscape of assassins mind the dying flowers made him blind junkies in the desert of weakening will death love drugs dreams it will kill the king is dead long grieving queen excited heartbeat in the madman's chest kill them all kill them all let god do the rest infamous whore her sour taste sex dripping slow deceased obsessed children in the nightfall of fire I hear them beg and cry tonight excuse me sir do you have a light man made god's man is made to be liars liars blind man saw the truth in the eye but who believes in blind man's lie poet hang himself in the rope of words angels spoke but nobody heard fatal justice of spinning knife the fact we're dead and dream of life.
