[Verse 1:]

Girlfriend with arms around me
You've been building walls around me
I don't know exactly where you've been
You take me for granted
I don't even understand it
I just see it coming to an end

[Prechorus:]

But everything looks good
And everything looks fine
It makes you believe, mm-hmm
That everything's all good
And everything's just fine
It makes you believe

[Chorus:]

Don't say nothing at all
Cause I already know
And you already know
It's over
Something's wrong
And I already know
And you already know
It's over

[Verse 2:]

I said pleased to meet you
You said things and I believed you
I forgot I've heard it all before

Girlfriend with arms around me
You've been building walls around me
No one would believe that I'm not sure

[Prechorus:]

Cause everything looks good
And everything looks fine
It makes you believe, mm-hmm
That everything's all good
And everything's just fine
It makes you believe

[Chorus:]
Don't say nothing at all
Cause I already know
And you already know
It's over
Something's wrong
And I already know
And you already know
It's over

Say nothing at all
Cause I already know
And you already know
It's over
Oh Something's wrong
And I already know
And you already know
It's over
