Something calling from deep inside me,
A voice i knew but i could not hear.
For so long i have tried to hide me,
Couldn't see that you were so near.

You know me,
You show me,
Everything that i really am and,
You see me,
You gave me strength enough to say.

Here i am
Ready for your love
Here i am
I'll never run away
I have made my connection,
Seen my reflection in you.
So here i am.

Living under a lonely shadow,
I have seen from the other side.
Hope will shine from a single candle,
Leaving all of the pain behind.

It's our way,
A new day,
Living in the here and now and,
Believing,
I'm feeling strong enough to say.

Never leave me,
You complete me.
I finally know who i love,
I love you
