The moon casts you shadow across the long wet grass.
I'm dizzy from spinning around with you laughing.
My head hurts.
Fuck you!

Sorry but i'm afraid of the day where you will say 'lets
go our seperate ways'

The clouds part and the light hits your face.
You get prettier everytime i see you.
My eyes hurt.
Fuck you!

Sorry but i'm afraid of the day where you will say 'lets
go our seperate ways'

Neon lights make you shine like a star.
I'm tired from dancing, having fun with you.
My feet hurt.
Fuck you!

Sorry but i'm afraid of the day where you will say 'lets
go our seperate ways'

In the dark i feel your warmth.
My heart races as we wrap ourselves around each other.
My chest hurts.
Fuck you!

Sorry but i'm still afraid of the day where you will say
'lets go our seperate ways'
