Yesterday i fell from the swing after dreaming of you
Covered in dirt i spat the filth from my mouth
And with the dirt out came words of hate.
Hate of your boyfriend coz of my love for you
That's the part i hate.

I hate your boyfriend.
I don't know him but i hate him
I hate him coz he has the most beautiful thing in the world (im jealous of your boyfriend)

Today i woke with my sheets thrown down and ur not around
I have the same dream everynight.
You walk in and tell me we'll fly off together
Then ur boyfriend comes to steal you away.
That's the part i hate.

I hate your boyfriend.
I don't know him but i hate him
I hate him coz he has the most beautiful thing in the world (im jealous of your boyfriend)

Tomorrow i will wake with your hand in mine Coz i know you will see what's right in your heart and mine.
I will drift away in your eyes as i drift further into your heart
Your laugh will echo forever in my heart when i make you laugh
With nothing more than a strange face.
That's the part i love.

I love your boyfriend.
I know him well.
I love him coz he's me, and has the most beautiful thing in the world.
