Don't go away. the further you run the harder it is to come back.

I'll wait for us. but i don't know if i can wait for you.

Listen to me with your eyes. can't you tell im screaming.

You left.

Still one thing you taught me remains

'don't love so much. the higher we climb the further we fall.'

But if it wasn't for the bad times we wouldn't know what the good times were.

Don't ever say i didn't love you

Forgiveness will be the thing that breaks us up.
