Lyrics : Fenris Gylve Nagell

Let me be the salt in your wound The flow of your mind has coagulated ( you're ) wishing somehow to bleed for the cause that no one will- heed confidence in illusions bravery of the garish honour of the despised spawned from the cradle of unmight pathetic distression, path of anger your insignifiance drowned by respect currently ( you're ) confident - aging in embarassment your future ( is ) deleted, bathe in disgrace

Let us be the salt in your wound !
