You hate everything about me
Why do you love me?

Worn out and faded
The weakness starts to show
They've created the generation
That we know
Washed up and hated
The system moves to slow
They give us answers
To questions they don't even know

Thinking to myself
That I have done something wrong
That I have crossed the line
Have you found out this time
I lead you to believe it's only you and me
Do you see it in my eyes?
Have you found out this time?
