Running, holding onto nothing, reaching out for something

Wishing for just one thing

Tripped and now you're falling, stumbled now you're crawling

Distracted by a small thing, missed out on your calling

And the dream is gone

And the clouds are breaking up

And the sun comes crashing through

And it feels like things are looking up for everyone but you

And your eyes go blind and your heart breaks in two

(Chorus)

Stand up, if you don't believe in love but you want to Let me look at you

And we'll help each other understand

If you want to, if you want to, if you want to Open, now your heart is broken, naked in the cold wind

Lost, but I'm still hoping we can love again

And the promises they promised you begin to disappear

And there's traffic in your head and you can't hold back the tears

Everything you ever wanted is a million miles from here

And there's nothing left to lose so there's nothing left to fear

(Chorus)

Don't let it go

Don't let it fade

You're not alone

Just hold on

Too little too late and you lost your faith

And there's not turning back now

That's ok

We can help each other out

'Cause I lost my way

And I'm not too proud, I'm not too proud to say

I need someone to lean on, is that ok? Is that ok?

Now everybody say...

(Chorus)
