I got up, turned the coffee on
Tryin' to face another day alone
Starin' down where you used to lay
Tryin' to figure how things got this way

And I know too well
That you moved on
Best thing for me to do is
To leave you alone

I've fallen out of love with you
It's way too far to fall, can't believe you're gone
I've fallen out of love with you
It's much, too much to bear, I just can't go there

And it's more than a lonely night
It's a wrong I never made right
I'm falling out of love with you
It's more than I can do

Try to get my life back again
Went out for drinks with a few old friends
The conversation finally turned to you
And as if on cue, you were there with someone new

An awkward introduction
That old familiar pain
And I don't think
I even call it a name

I've fallen out of love with you
It's way too far to fall, can't believe that you're gone
I'm falling out of love with you
It's much, too much to bear, well, I just can't go

And it's more than this lonely, lonely night
It's a wrong I never made right
I'm falling out of love with you
It's more than I can do

I'm falling out of love with you
It's more than I can do
