

Setting Fires "The Search"

I keep on searching in the city streets,
I'm wide awake and I'm unafraid,
All these ships upon the violent waves,
I can't sleep until you're next to me,
And I never felt this close before,
Like I'm standing in a lightning storm,
(Uh oh oh oh)

All the world is an empty stage,
And all I want is to see your face,
I've been looking for you night and day,
I won't stop until you're here with me,
From telescopes on satellites,
Above us in the air tonight,

I've been searching for you,
And I keep looking for you,
I've been searching for you,
Since the day,
Since the day that you were born,
The day that you were born,
The day that you were born,
The day that you were born,
The day that you were born.

I keep on searching in the city streets,
I'm wide awake and I'm unafraid,
All these ships upon the violent waves,
I can't sleep until you're next to me,
I keep on searching in the city streets,
I'm wide awake and I'm unafraid,
All these ships upon the violent waves,
I can't sleep until you're next to me,
I can't sleep until you're next to me,
I won't sleep until you're next to me,
I won't sleep until you're next to me,
I won't sleep until you're here with me,
I won't sleep until you're next to me,
I won't sleep until you're next to me,
I won't sleep until you're here with me,
(Uh oh oh oh)
