We've tried to compare ourselves in time
All along what went wrong

Hey
Rekindling of a dwindling fire
Execution style when the dealer becomes the buyer
Living on a tight wire 24 hours a day
I'm ready to pray, there's got to be a better way
I say, can I, will I, have I, I pray that I get by and I
Keep on living to get me by
Expected to be I never knew why

Why can't you be, what I expected
Why can't you see, I've been rejected
How could this be? Something troubling
Or could you see, it's inside of me

Redemption now has taken control of me
Check this out
Expected to be I never quite fit so fuck you
A time to be she said to me, I'll be there
An empty dream it seemed.
Weigh out every day on a triple beam
Acting like a fiend, when my insides are inspected
Take a second look,
It might not be what you expected
Take a harder look at what you got
Take a second look, it might not be a lot

Why can't you be, what I expected
Why can't you see, I've been rejected
How could this be? Something troubling
Or could you see, it's inside of me

Star
DROP IT!
Why can't you be?
