running in step
in place in circles for you here around the things i knew i never said given the chance i knew the follow through to make this real

this mask
is all i see
it's all i feel
it's all i fear i'll ever
but i need you to feel alive

everyone watches
as this world has gone astray alone in the dreams of others nightmares half the time i find it real the other half is looking back again through

this mask
is all i see
it's all i fear i'll ever be

is all i see

i need you
