bring her home
cuz she's not yours
from my arms you stole
i need a reason
why you lied to me
played this game on me
i need a reason
why you walked out on me
comfort me

fuck my wife for me
tear my life away
beat my children
take my everything
then let karma drag you down likewise i'm not about to let you get away with this nothing comes easy

nothing comes for free
you took away a life that was meant for me i need to turn the tables
comfort me

kill my wife for me
tear my life away
beat my children
then let your conscience hold you down
