Sometimes you're hit by the moment,
Suddenly everything seems to be clear,
A time when the world moves so slowly,
A time when the answers just seem to appear,
Sometimes it seems like a long road,
Wrapped up and caught up in all that you fear,
Finally you stand in a strange place,
Where you've learned and you've grown and your moment is here,

And I won't look back,
Ill just smile at the world in a different way
And I won't look back
I've got so much to do I've got so much to say.

Heaven is here in a feeling,
Nothing or no one can take it away,
The sanity lies in just knowing,
That all that you've done has let you do today,
Finally you stand in a strange place,
Well suddenly everything seems to be clear,
A time when the world moves so slowly,
A time when the answers just seem to appear,

And I won't look back,
Ill just smile at the world in a different way,
And I won't look back,
I've got so much to do I've got so much to say.

And I won't look back,
Ill just smile at the world in a different way,
And I won't look back,
I've got so much to do I've got so much to say.

And I won't look back
Ill just smile at the world in a different way...
