Sometimes you're hit by the moment
When suddenly everything seems to be clear
A time when the world moves so slowly
A time when the answers just seem to appear
Sometimes it seems like a long road
Wrapped up and caught up in all that you fear
Then finally you stand in a strange place Where you've learned and you've grown and your moment is here

I won't look back
I'll just smile at the world in a different way
And I won't look back
I've got so much to do I've got so much to say

Heaven is here in the feeling
And nothing or no one can take it away
And sanity lies in just knowing
That all that you've done has led you to today
And finally I stand in that strange place
Where suddenly everything seems to be clear
A time when the world moves so slowly
A time when the answers just seem to appear
