crawl in the sun today as i chase all the monsters away and i am glued to you but what am i supposed to do when all i seem to do is bleed and you're the only one i need

oh i want to be addicted to you so i will chase after you like you

chase you chase after me like i chase after you

and i think it's time for a change 'cause i won't, no i won't and i feel so alone but that's the time i call my own yeah

now there's nothing left but you and me so i'll chase after you like you chase after me like i chase after you leave today i must take the time to heal and i will steal what's mine and return so just let it go and let it go
