Found myself on certain road again
This place reminds me of you and
I'll play those memories back
Just like the old song
It goes like this

Back then we thought it would last forever
But who was I to say?
I know, I know the questions never
Hey, that's a long time away

When we lost it
We knew it
We never found it a long long time ago
We lost it
We knew it
We never found it a long long time ago

So, the story is true
I was thinking of you and
The story is true
I was thinking of you and going...

Found myself drifting off again
I was thinking of you when
All the thoughts come rushing back
Then I heard the old song
It goes like this

Those days we couldn't find the answer
We broke each others hearts
And the years just fade away
That's the way that it ended

When we lost it
We knew it
We never found it a long long time ago
We lost it
We knew it
We never found it a long long long time ago

So, the story is true

I was thinking of you and
The story is true
I was thinking of you and going...
