During today's reflections
I saw my imperfection
I saw all the ways
That I have hurt you
Striving for perfection
Deny the resurrection
Living under my own power
Again I hurt you
Chorus:
At night I cry
When I see the things that I've done
I ask why
Can't I be perfect
Draw me closer I pray
I have a burning passion for you
You are my desire
Ignite a raging fire
Please give me strength
So I won't hurt you
Chorus:
At night I cry
When I see the things that I've done
I ask why
Can't I be perfect
