Pregnant with a purpose
Your love consumes me
Rises to the surface
The time spent
At your feet
Your Spirit touches me
My life is complete
My life
Your words pierce my heart
the world in hurt
tears me apart
Your vision is so great
When man is reconciled
I will celebrate
Chorus:
I'm thankful for purpose
Thankful for life
Thankful for the passion
That burns inside
Thankful for mercy
Thankful for grace
I'm thankful that someday
I'll see your face
Bridge:
The darkness has subsided
Now I see
Your vision for me
Chorus:
I'm thankful for purpose
Thankful for life
Thankful for the passion
That burns inside
Thankful for mercy
Thankful for grace
I'm thankful that someday
I'll see your face
