Written by Lucas/Frost

She can be dark as night and ageless as
The void...
A gentle breeze or winter storm
Her eyes like crystal pools are gazing through my soul
I can't pull myself away
*Ride on air / Embrace the darkness /
Touch the sky / Kiss the Light /
Love the Silence
Am I worthy of your everlasting spell
I feel I've known your touch before
Eye within my mind that recalls my
Yesterday's Reincarnation so complete
(repeat 2*)
I - I will ride the wind with you my Love I'm singing ...OH...Ever -
Everlasting spell that you have cast
I'm singing...OH...
Blasting through space and time we
Cling together
You feed my dark need we'll be
Forever
Come to me; hold me close let it now
Begin
A feast of flesh, frenzy of lust we will Always win
Now we're one for the very first time -
Dreams foretold - You've seen the Sign / explosive rush consumes our skin
- Now we're one, We are one with sin
