What are you saying ?
Did you forget yourself ?
You kill the sickness
Secure within your health
Don't make a sound I could break
That stupid silence degrades
I ask of you could you wait
What's the use you're wasting me away
Wasting me away

To me it's cold
You can know
What it's like to be alone
And all there is that you know
I'll be the one left here when you go

SLAP IN THE FACE [X5]

Keep me in mind
You're bleeding my poor head
I watched you die
I watched you praying
Keep me alive
Don't let me die here
I ask of you could you wait ?
What's the use you're wasting away

To me it's cold
You can know
What it's like to be alone
And all there is that you know

You can know
What it's like to be alone
And all there is that you know
