Artificial lights
In an artificial sky,
With you at the wheel no one will survive.

The futures in your hands
But the past is on your mind.
This could be our only chance now

We'll fight this time, cos we've nothing left to lose
This is our time, yeah

Baby you and me, we own the night (We own the night,
we own the night)
As the city sleeps, we'll be all right
Let's make this unforgettable

It's up to you cos there ain't nothing we can't do
We own the night

We're running through the street,
While we're running out of time.
Fortune favours those who understand

That day will surely come,
Our lives could slip away
Nothing ever lives to tell the tale.

We'll fight this time, cos we've nothing left to lose
This is our time, yeah

Baby you and me, we own the night (We own the night,
we own the night)
As the city sleeps, we'll be all right
Let's make this unforgettable

It's up to you cos there ain't nothing we can't do
We own the night

Baby you and me, we own the night (We own the night,
we own the night)
As the city sleeps, we'll be all right

Lets make this unforgettable

Its up to you cos there is nothing we cant do

We own the night

We own the night

We own the night

We own the night
