Trouble came broke your door
Crushed you name robbed you poor
You feel he's gone or fast asleep
When all is gone wrong you're in too deep
He hasn't left you in the night even now

You haven't left his watching eye even now
So children sing it when you don't see how
My fathers worthy of my hope even now
The feelings gone you're wondering
If you heard him wrong if he's listening
The same old fear the same old haze
Is God not here is his hand raised
Could this be part of any good plan
Seems to be you've fallen out of his hand He hasn't left you in the night even now

So children sing it when you don't see how
My fathers worthy of my hope even now
When your broken don't know how to ment even now
When your tunnel's still dark at the end even now
His children don't know why
But trust their father's at their side
So hold his hand hold up your hope
Even now He hasn't left you in the night even now
So children Sing it when you don't see how
My fathers worthy of my hope even now
He hasn't left you in the night even now
So children sing it when you don't see how
My fathers worthy of my hope even now
