Well I'm living with these old lies
And I'm stuck back here in yesterday
Keep your head up it'll get better
That's all I hear but I'm still drifting

I said myself for winds of fortune
Well I'm sorry but there's no end today
And body's getting tired
Guess I'll kill myself and ease the pain

I cannot take another moment
Do I just lay back be crucified

I want to believe in something
Man I feel like I've just wasted away
I gotta believe in something
Ohâ€¦before I'm dead

Man I've traveled every highway
Now just can't seem to find the one that's right
And I've burned that bridge behind
I want my sanity, I just want my piece of mind

I cannot take another moment
Do I just lay back be crucified

I want to believe in something
Man I feel like I've just wasted away
I gotta believe in something
Ohâ€¦before I'm dead
