Until now I have been running through my life
Thoughtless, careless no one reasons with me
For what? I am a king, I will never care
I will force you on your knees, drive up the wall
Be mine today, bow down and kiss my ass

Go down, deep down below
To the depths of your soul
Your moan and your screams will
Just fade away, it all fades away

Raging Fire - in hell you will burn
Raging Fire - now it is the devils turn
Raging Fire - be afraid, it's for eternity
No man is able to protect you from
