I'm finding all the things I need
To carry on as though I'll be just fine
The simple life we used to lead
Is nothing more than just a dream in mind

So go, go be on you're way
(I'd never) Thought that I'd be
Falling hard, like you are
Today, today

You say I'm not enough today
As if I forced you to be faking love
You paint it like somehow you changed
I can't believe the lies you're making up

So go, go be on you're way
(I'd never) Thought that I'd be
Falling hard, like you are
I'll go, go another way
(I'm goin') All before I'm
Falling hard, like you are
Today

Give up on love, you want to feel it
Seems like you've found another regret
It's all been taken up before I found it
Now I'll watch you

Go, go be on you're way
Thought that I'd be
Falling hard, like you are
I'll go, go another way
(I'm goin') All before I'm
Falling hard, like you are

Go, go be on your way
I'm falling hard, like you are
Today

Today
