If I could fall around the world
I'd take you on
And let you be the line
Of you just turn around
Then you'll understand
I'd be the one to always hold your hand

I don't even know you
But I think I've found the one
I don't even know you
But this will come undone
'Cause I need you to see
What I can be
I don't even know you
But I think I've found the one

I know you're out
Of time you've gotta leave
Don't go
Come down
Around the way with me
One touch is all I need to show you how
I'd be the one you'd almost never found

I don't even know you
But I think I've found the one
I don't even know you
But this will come undone
'Cause I need you to see
What I can be
I don't even know you
But I think I've found the one

Come closer to me
And see what I see
The feeling is growing inside of me

I don't even know you
But I think I've found the one
I don't even know you
But this will come undone
'Cause I need you to see

What I can be
I don't even know you
But I think I've found the one
Yeah I think I've found the one
I think I've found the one
