Hope isn't really what I want to face right now
This love is getting me upside down
But she said
The weight of my head
Is dragging me down so I'm better off dead

Go take a minute just a little time to waste
My life, keep thinking about the Weight of my crime
But what did you find
Imperfect enough to save your life

So hold me if you can
And tell me where we stand
If love was in the plan
You won, you won
And I've been waiting
You've been taking time
So hold me if you can

No I don't ever want to have to chase you down
Again, I know it's the past but
How do we mend
The truth that we bend
As much as I like it's love that I send

Show me how to hide the pain you tear apart
This love, ignoring the fact
This heart on my sleeve
Well you've got the key
Just give me the word and I'll believe

So hold me if you can
And tell me where we stand
If love was in the plan
You won, you won
And I've been waiting
You've been taking time
So hold me if you can

Look with your eyes

You'll be surprised
I'll wait tonight

Hold out your hand
You'll see this plan
I've made tonight

Hope isn't really what I want to face right now

So hold me if you can
And tell me where we stand
If love was in the plan
You won, you won
And I've been waiting
You've been taking time
So hold me if you can

Hold me if you can

(whoaaa, whoaaa)

And I've been waiting
You've been taking your time
