"The Notion"

I don't remember, remember, remember the night
If there was ever, was ever, a means to the fight
Do you believe in, believe in, the words that were said
I won't repeat it, repeat it, for means to an end

I don't wish anything or anyone mistakes all the lies
If you just fill the cup and drink it up then I won't abide Your indecisions cut so many off that I couldn't find
A truth to follow that would take me

Call everyone
The notion, the notion is getting it done
Call everyone
The motion, the motion is building under the sun

I felt so cheated, so cheated, so cheated inside
You said you needed, you needed, a place you could hide
Why can't you face it, just face it, you needed a plan
I can't replace it, replace it, the stone turned to sand

I don't need anything or anyone to tell me to find The who what where when how and most of all the reasoning why
You inhibitions show the way I know that you never tried
I want them all to know you wasted

Call everyone
The notion, the notion is getting it done
Call everyone
The motion, the motion is building under the sun

No, never had to be the one
This is where we get done chasing
With all these things to say

Call everyone
The notion, the notion is getting it done
Call everyone
The motion, the motion is building under

Call everyone
The notion, the notion is getting it done
Call everyone
The motion, the motion is building under the sun
