I know the pain you hide.
It's gripped me, stripped me of all that's inside.
Torn from unsuspecting man.
Ending with my heart burnt in my hand.
Unavoidable pain, almost slain, a bruised back, I'll never go back.
Keep you feet from the path of destruction.
Satan attacks with lies.

Wisdom waits she cries.
Reach out for her which fools despise.
Don't let the devil feed you his lies.
Don't dine with death.
All that's left in this world isn't worth my soul.
Come back it's not too late.
He's waiting with open arms for you.
Come back.
