Through thick and thin.
You've stayed by my side.
So faithful a friend, you're so true to your own.
When I am lost and alone, You stay by my side.
And you'll never let me go, and you'll never leave me
for dead.
So many times I've tried to hide.
I sought to throw away my life.
I tried to close my eyes and cover up the pain inside.
My pride had led me down a one-way path of no return.
But you stood by my side through thick and thin; more than a friend.
Why would I run from such a good thing?
You've always been there for me.
Never let me go (2x).
Stand by me, never let me go (2x).
