"Dressed In Air"

Once there was a time when I could say that I was dressed in air
Now I'm not so sure
Once there was a time when I could say that I was in the right
Now I'm not so sure
You can talk, always talk and move on
And the movement has the louder voice
Says, "your love begins on my command."
Maybe one day we'll meet under a bridge
Saying, "Your life begins on my command."
"Yes, well, this woe is me stuff is getting a bit tedious."
