"Unleash Your Sword"

Unleash your sword and finish the work you hold so dear
I'm tired of running and I've got so much to give Don't stay the blow, the weight will grow and you will lose your grip
And I'm not so certain I don't live for it anyway
I know what hurts you more than hurts me
There's more than one way to skin a friend
And in the night I draw a red abrupt line to you "Very few people can hurt someone without hurting themselves. It's not Just a case bad guy & good guy."
