Lie lie lie lie liar you lie lie lie lie lie
Tell me why tell me why why d'you have to lie
Should've realised that you should've
Told the truth should've realised you know what
I'll do
You're in suspension
You're a liar
Now i wanna know know know know
I wanna know why you never
Look me in the face
Broke a confidence just to please
Your ego should've realised
You know what i know
You're in suspension
You're a liar
I know where you go every body you know
I know everything that you do or say
So when you tell lies i'll always be in your way
I'm nobody's fool and i know all 'cos i know
What i know
You're in suspension you're a liar
You're a liar you're liar
Lie lie lie lie lie lie lie lie
Lie lie lie lie liar you lie lie lie lie
I think you're funny you're funny ha ha
I don't need it don't need your blah blah
Should've realised i know what you are
You're in suspension you're a liar
You're a liar you're a liar
Lie lie
