It's always raining in her head
I think I might be better off dead, she said
When nothing's going on
And the days feel long
The twin suns shine on way to strong
If I could ease the pain
By living in the rain
I might just leave today

(Chorus)

You might as well go,
You might as well go,
You might as well go oo oooh,
Live on Kamino oo oo oo oo
Live on Kamino oo oo oo oo
Live on Kamino oo oo oo oo oo oooh

Repulsor lifts beneath her bed
Keeps the sun shining off her head, instead
While her room freezes over like Hoth's own winter
And her tears freeze to her cheeks as I enter
And the sun shine in and the ice burns away
Cause here it's such a sunny day

(Chorus)

Kamino is waiting for you (You might as well go)
Kamino is waiting for you (You might as well go)
Kamino is waiting for you (You might as well go)
Kamino is waiting for you
